

Hello Everyone!

Milton D. Frog, here, from PARMA HOBBY, bringing you the latest news and announcements.

Attached are the pictures of the 2009 AutoFest. There are pictures of the judges hard at work judging, the winning entries in each category and a group picture of all the participants who were present at Parma Hobby last Sunday. These pictures will be up on our website: www.parmahobby.com, by this weekend, too.

We had 60 models submitted by 30 modellers. This seemed to be the year of the family participants. There was a father, son and daughter, 2 brothers, 1 husband and wife, and 3 fathers and sons. It was great to see such family participation. We here at Parma Hobby, believe that parents are not only passing along a valuable and worthwhile skill to their children, they are also gaining a wonderfully rewarding memory they will keep forever.

So, here are the winners:

EFLH2300

Boasting the same great features as the Blade mCX RTF, E-flite's Blade mCX Schweizer 300C™ RTF is a tough little heli with a dazzling, molded scale body. It includes white rotor blades, simulated tail rotor, tail boom and an attractive factory-applied trim scheme to help first-time pilots learn how to fly with ease, while allowing experienced heli pilots to fly anywhere, anytime.

The Blade mCX S300 offers unsurpassed stability and incredible control through its coaxial, counter-rotating head design and Spektrum™ 2.4GHz DSM2™ control. It can be flown almost anywhere indoors thanks to its 7.5-inch rotor span and one-ounce flying weight. The Blade mCX S300 comes 100% factory-assembled, flight-tested and ready to fly right out of the box—no assembly or setup required.

Also included is a LiPo battery and battery-powered DC charger, a four-channel transmitter equipped with Spektrum 2.4GHz DSM2 technology and eight AA batteries. The DSM2 technology offers freedom from frequency restrictions and lets the Blade mCX S300 be flown with full 4-channel control that gives you the precision needed for flying in those tight spaces indoors.

HOBBYZONE SUPER CUB LP RTF HBZ7300

Teach yourself to fly RC by mastering the basics of throttle, steering and pitch control with the HobbyZone® Super Cub LP. The Super Cub LP brings together great scale looks and gentle flying characteristics in this classic Cub trainer and with Anti-Crash Technology (ACT™) this kit makes teaching yourself to fly easier and safer than ever before. With ACT, anyone can fly.

Beyond being a great way to teach yourself to fly, the HobbyZone

Super Cub LP also offers you exciting options that you simply won't find in any other RC plane like it. Options like HobbyZone's exclusive X-Port™ technology that lets you add remotely controlled functions like parachute drops (requires Aerial Drop Module™ - sold separately). There's also an optional float kit (sold separately) that lets you turn any lake or pond into a back country, bush-flying adventure. As with all HobbyZone airplanes, the Super Cub LP comes with everything you need to get flying in this box and can be flight-ready in as little time as it takes you to charge the battery pack.
